A Message from the Chair ...

I have lived in Northern Virginia for more than thirty years now and at different times I have called Prince William County, the City of Manassas and Fauquier County my home. During this time I have been fortunate to meet a wide variety of residents — those who are brand-new to the area, those who were born and raised here and those whose families settled here generations ago. Almost everyone agrees that this region is a great place in which to live, work and raise a family. They also agree, even those who have only lived here a year or so, that our area has seen and continues to see many changes.

They say change is a good thing. From time to time, I reflect on how much the area has changed in the past thirty years and I truly believe change has been good to Northern Virginia and particularly the communities of Prince William County. Sure, we are experiencing some growing pains—but think about it, without change there would be no Cities of Manassas and Manassas Park. Without change, the Manassas Regional Airport would still be on Route 234 where Manaport Plaza is currently situated and there would be no Manassas Mall. Without change, Northern Virginia Community College would not have a Manassas or Woodbridge Campus and there would be no Prince William Campus of George Mason University. Without change Prince William Hospital, would not be in the process of building a state-of-the art cancer treatment center in Gainesville have evolved into the quality health system and community asset it is. Without change, the businesses in western Prince William County would not be booming.

Without change, I would not be able to announce that in 2007, your Prince William County-Greater Manassas Chamber of Commerce will open a satellite office to serve our membership and the rapidly growing business community in Gainesville and Haymarket. Your Chamber has signed an agreement to situate an additional Chamber office in Synergy One Federal Credit Union's new branch currently under construction on Route 29 in Gainesville. With this agreement, Synergy One FCU has become the Chamber's first Keystone Contributor.

These are exciting times to be a member of the Prince William County-Greater Manassas Chamber of Commerce. We are changing and growing to better serve you, our membership. I'm reaping the rewards of my Chamber membership and I sure hope you are too.

February 2006

Barbara Reese

BR Associates

and

Prince William 4-H Teen Leadership Program

Barbara Reese is Co-Chair of the Education Committee and has served in that office for several years. Under her leadership, the Education Committee has been reorganized and energized. Not only has she managed to grow the number of committee members by threefold, it was her idea to divide the committee into smaller subcommittees, called “Work Groups,” each with its own responsibilities. This new direction for the Education Committee guarantees that every member gets the opportunity to substantially contribute.

Barbara also gives generously of her time to ensure the success of the committee's events and initiatives. A good example of this is the two-day “Missing Link” event held recently at Osbourn High School in conjunction with the school's FBLA. She, along with Co-Chair, Jonathan Arehart, not only attended the event but was there all day for both days helping out.

March 2006

Rob Hagman

FASTSIGNS of Manassas

Rob Hagman joined the Chamber even before he recently opened his business in Manassas. Since that time, he has been involved in numerous Chamber activities. At one such Chamber event, he happened to notice our Cornerstone Contributors sign. Being in the sign business, he offered to replace our slightly beat up sign with the beautiful retractable banner that you may have noticed in use at the Chamber office and all Chamber events. He also produced our new Chamber podium sign. FASTSIGNS of Manassas recently hosted the first “Business Before Hours” event of 2006.

The Chamber to Open a Gainesville Office

In a press conference held last month at SYNERGY ONE Federal Credit Union in Manassas, Chamber Chair Kevin Kelley of Falcon Promotions and Print Solutions, unveiled plans to open a satellite office within the new SYNERGY One FCU location planned for Rt. 29 in Gainesville. The building is expected to open in fall 2007.

The Manassas office will remain where it is, and will continue to provide the same outstanding service to businesses that it has since its inception in 1935.

When the Chamber examined its membership, it discovered that more than one-fourth of its members are located in western Prince William County. That fact and the increasing rate of growth of new businesses in that area pointed to the need for a Chamber presence in western Prince William County.

SYNERGY ONE Federal Credit Union President and CEO, Bill White was presented with a plaque designating SYNERGY ONE FCU as the Chamber's first Keystone Contributor, a new level of sponsorship.

Commented Kevin Kelley, "Our Chamber's strategic plan recognizes the future growth in this area of Prince William County and a satellite office in Gainesville-Haymarket fulfills the vision of our Board of Directors to expand our membership and serve the thriving business community in this area of the county."

Education: An Investment in the Future

The Chamber has supported local educators and students since its inception in 1935. The Chamber has always realized that excellent schools produce excellent business leaders, employees and citizens. That is why the Chamber offers a variety of events and programs for students and their schools.

Missing Link

Osborn High School FBLA Hosts the Missing Link Project

BY MELISSA BELL

Co-Chairman, "Speed It Up!"

The Missing Link networking event was created by the Chamber's Education Committee in an attempt to bridge the "missing link" by forming mutual relationships between high school students and the business people of our community. This year, the Education Committee partnered with Osborn High School's FBLA in an attempt to reach many students. Together they created the "Speed It Up! Speed Networking" event. This event took place at Osborn High School on February 8th and 9th at which 43 business professionals and 600 high school students attended.

The event was divided into sessions during which each business person had the opportunity to talk to as many as 50 students. This interaction allowed the students the opportunity to share their clubs and organizations with which they are involved, and then to ask the businesses for help. Not only was this beneficial for the students, it also allowed the participants to discover all the different types of organizations that Osborn High School has to offer and how they potentially could assist these student organizations. Because Osborn High School is such a diverse school this event was the perfect opportunity for the businesses to understand the changing community by drawing on the wealth of information the FBLA students provided.

Another highlight of the event was the recruitment of students for summer jobs and internships, as well as allowing the business people the opportunity to share their knowledge with the students and promote their business. Every participating business left the event knowing they had made a difference in the students' lives and had helped shape the future of tomorrow's business community.

The event was a huge success for all involved. In fact, the Osborn FBLA students were so excited about the experience that many students wish they could organize another joint networking event before the school year is over.
